

Soylent Green Trading is a intergalactic trading, shipping, exploration, and contracting company. We value the privacy of our clients and will provide a efficient and speedy completion of all jobs.

We are competitive in our pricing, and will do our best to match or beat fair market value of any service or item.

Mission:

To provide adequate service at competitive pricing.

To ensure goods make it to their destination in the same condition they are received in.

To provide secure transport of any item or persons.

To provide fast retrieval of goods, items, or persons.

To provide efficient mission completion; escorts or other needs.

To maintain the highest technical, operational, health and safety standards for the ships.

To provide high quality services in order to satisfy customers' needs.

To ensure the privacy of our clients.

Shipping:

Come to Soylent Green Trading Co for all of your shipping needs. We put the human element back into trading.

Need something moved? We can move it.

Need something retrieved? We can get it.

Need something found? We can find it.

Our Trading division deals with the buying/selling/shipping of parts, weapons, ores, minerals, cargo, people, and other goods. We can deliver to any place in the known universe, and a few places unknown if need be.

We are also available for other contract work; be it escort, personal transportation, or other needs.

Salvage:

Need a ship salvaged? We can handle that too. Just give us the coords and we will be there. We offer competitive pricing at a reasonable percent of the value of the salvaged material. We can then return the goods to a specified location or we can sell the goods for you (Trade taxes, fees, and fuel costs will vary).

Exploration:

Soylent Green Co not only handles trading, we also Explore.

Need a sector explored, or scouted? Give us a call.

For a competitive fee we will scout out an area, or explore a unknown sector

Transports:

We may not have the fanciest ships, but if you need transport to a location, we can get you there.

We offer secure and safe transportation to any location in explored space. People seeking transportation to unexplored sectors will need to contact our Exploration Division.

Escort:

Safe and sound escorting. We will ensure that your ship(s) will make it to their destination intact. For a fair market rate we will escort you to your destination. Rates may vary, depending on location and distance, or value of the escort.

Contracting:

What is our contracting department? Contracting covers all the other needs a individual or company may need outside the norm. May things can not be planned for, when they do happen, give us a call. We will see what we can do.

Our company ensures safe and secure dealings and communications. Our customer's privacy and security is high on our list.

Employment Opportunities:

Need a job?

Want adventure?

Feel the need to explore and see new places?

Soylent Green Trading Co may have a place for you.

We offer employment for a wide range of skills. If you are interested in joining our team, contact a member of our company to start the process. All applicants are subject to a background check through the UEE.

Employment within SGTC does come with its perks. You will have access to discounted buying/selling/trading rates, as well as access to our facilities. Payment will include a varying commission of the completed job based on the result of the service provided.

Employees will also have access to our trade contacts, dealers, and manufactures.
